THE PARISHES OF ST. MONICA AND ST. LUCY

JAN 28
2024

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Holy One of God!

Mark 1:24

ST. LUCY CHURCH | 254 MERRIMACK ST.

ST. MONICA CHURCH | 212 LAWRENCE ST.

For fifty years, the last week in January has been dedicated to Celebrating Catholic Schools in the United States. Although my years of celebrating CSW is a little shy of this golden anniversary - I look forward to this spirit-filled week probably more than the students do! This week we celebrate our "HOW".

In many ways schools are very similar, and curriculums are fairly standard across our state. Fourth grade will learn about the states and regions, grade three masters their multiplication and division facts, seventh grade embarks on world geography and of course our first graders will emerge in June as fluent readers. I am confident this is true in many area schools with equally trained teachers - probably with considerably more resources than our humble school could ever imagine. However, our HOW is what makes us unique.

After stepping into our building one realizes Jesus dwells here. His presence is effervescent. Our HOW is beyond what adorns our walls. St. Monica School's HOW is cultivated organically into our instruction, our practices, and the community that shines here. This week we celebrate our parish, our community, our family, our nation, and most importantly our faculty and staff, through Catholic lenses.

Hallmarks of second grade are peppered with preparation for the sacrament of Holy Communion, grade four focuses on the commandments. Grade five does a deep dive into all the sacraments. We have annual art shows, science fairs, and drama productions like other schools. What is equally remarkable is what you don't see at St. Monica School. Our students are here for a Catholic education. Our students leave our school prepared for high school and ready to take on the challenges they will encounter, including the challenge to live their faith. We have given them the tools to stand strong, aligned with their faith, and evangelizing Jesus Christ as the way, the truth, the life. That is our HOW in action.

Each week St. Monica Church hosts several funerals. Our school shares a play area with the parking lot so there are times when an outdoor recess coincides with a funeral Mass. Our students, as young as they are, learn very quickly that if they are outside during a procession or recession of a funeral - they are to stop playing and stand in silence out of respect for the family and the deceased. It is our expectation. This is HOW our students show their Catholic school "roots". A very simple act that speaks volumes to the character of our students here at St. Monica School. We have received many calls, emails, and even donations from family members touched by this humble sign of respect. It always warms my heart when we make a grieving family feel a little better with this simple demonstration of respect.

Amid our growth over the six plus decades of St. Monica School we are still true to our core beliefs. We are a small Catholic School, committed to providing a strong, faith-centered Catholic foundation and providing opportunities for all students to achieve their potential in an inclusive, collaborative, and family-oriented community. Our strength lies in our connections with our families and students. It is a community where everyone knows your name, and together we weave a promising future!

Please join me this week in celebrating our faculty, staff, and students, both past and present, who have graced our building and continue to represent St. Monica School as productive, faith-filled members of society. Your continued support and prayers are always appreciated.

If you are a parent or grandparent of a school-aged child and are considering Catholic education, please join us for our Open House on Wednesday, January 31, 6-7:30 P.M. It is an opportunity to visit the classrooms, meet the teachers and see some of the curriculum we have been working on.

This is an exciting time for St. Monica School, and I am looking forward to what lies ahead for our school. God is good!

PENITENTIAL ACT - GLORIA*Refer to Pew Card*FIRST READING*Deuteronomy 18: 15-20*

Moses spoke to all the people, saying: "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the LORD, your God, at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let us not again hear the voice of the LORD, our God, nor see this great fire any more, lest we die.' And the LORD said to me, 'This was well said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die.'"

RESPONSORIAL PSALM*Psalm 95: 1-2, 6-7, 7-9*

R. If to - day you hear his voice, hard - en not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD; let us acclaim the rock of our salvation.
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the LORD who made us.
For he is our God, and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice: "Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the desert, where your fathers tempted me; they tested me though they had seen my works."

SECOND READING1 Corinthians 7: 32-35*

Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties. An unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. But a married man is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and he is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in both body and spirit. A married woman, on the other hand, is anxious about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to impose a restraint upon you, but for the sake of propriety and adherence to the Lord without distraction.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATIONMark 1: 15*

The people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death, light has arisen.

GOSPELMark 1: 21-28*

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

CREEDRefer to Pew CardCOMMUNION ANTIPHONPsalm 31 (30): 17-18*

Let your face shine on your servant. Save me in your merciful love.
O Lord, let me never be put to shame, for I call on you.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
