We request parishioners and visitors to register for the Holy Triduum & Easter Sunday Masses.

Registration will open on Sunday, March 21st at 5 pm and will close on Wednesday, March 31st at 5 pm.

You can register two ways:
(a) go to methuencatholic.org or (b) call the office at (978) 683-1193. All Masses will be celebrated in the main churches of both parishes.

At the start of Holy Week, Holy Mother Church asks us to accompany Our Lord to Jerusalem, where he goes to die for us and our salvation. Now this great mystery has already been accomplished once for all two thousand years ago, but we have the awesome opportunity to (a) remember this great gift of our Lord and (b) enter into this mystery through the liturgies of Holy Week. Our one job is to be disposed to receive the graces of this holy week. What does that mean? Will we welcome Christ and the gift he brings or will we miss him because we do not notice him or even refuse him because we do not want his gifts?

The first step is prayer. Pray in earnest to be open. Pray to notice. Pray to welcome his presence and gift in the liturgies and in the people with whom we live.

The second step is connected with the first. It requires a bit of imagination, but I find it tremendously helpful. Use your time this week to read the four passion accounts (Matthew Ch 26-27; Mark Ch 14-15; Luke Ch 22-23; John Ch 18-19) and then on Holy Saturday read one or all four of the Resurrection accounts (Mt Ch 28; Mk Ch 16; Luke Ch 24; and John Ch 20-21). In these stories try to identify with these characters. If we were there, who would we be?

Are we Peter, courageously accompanying our Lord confidently proclaiming our fidelity to the Master only to abandon him in fear when questioned by other people in the world about our Lord? ('And again he denied it with an oath: "I do not know the man".' Mt 26:72)

Are we Judas, who accompanies him every day but secretly disbelieving Our Lord and his promises, looking for an opportunity to betray him? ("and from that moment he sought an opportunity to betray him." Mt 26:16)

Are we Mary, silently pondering the mystery of her son Jesus united to him and his suffering with a deep devotion and love despite the difficulties of daily life? ("...but standing by the cross, were his mother and his mother's sister." Jn 19:25)

Are we the Pharisees, decrying Christ on the cross and putting conditions on the signs they will accept from God and the type of Savior they will follow? ("If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross." Mt 27:40)

Are we the good thief, who in the midst of his own sinfulness and suffering recognizes the persecuted Christ and is somehow ready and willing to put his faith in him. ("Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' And he said to him, 'Truly I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise.'" (Lk 23:42-43)

What is our response to Christ? That is the question I would invite us to ask this week. Even more, let us pray for ourselves and each other--that we will follow our Lord to Calvary with Mary and so celebrate our new life in him. Amen.

Karl Jackson

Parishioners will notice that the pews have been re-taped and the individual tape in the available pews has been removed. You will also notice that the chairs have been replaced around the perimeter of St. Monica's. These changes are in keeping with the new protocols and an attempt to begin the slow process of returning to normal. When seated in the pews, households (of however many people) are asked to socially distance two arms lengths apart from neighboring households. The protocols for masking remain the same.

Thank-you.

Blessed palms will be available at all of the Palm Sunday Masses this weekend.

If you'd like to pick up palms during the week, please contact the office. (978) 683-1193.

Divine Mercy Novena

The Novena begins on Good Friday and continues to Divine Mercy Sunday. Pamphlets are available in the magazine racks in both churches.
