PRAYER CORNER

Holy Father's Intention for November | For the prevention of suicide: Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

Our own intentions | The Souls in Purgatory, Patrice K., Kim P, Michelle R., Dipti S.

For those who have died | Please pray for those whose funerals we recently offered. May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

EXCERPT FROM FR. FREDERICK FABER

(Rev. Frederick William Faber was born in England, 1814; ordained for the Church of England, 1839; received into the Catholic Church, 1845; joined Newman's Oratory, 1848; died, 1863.)

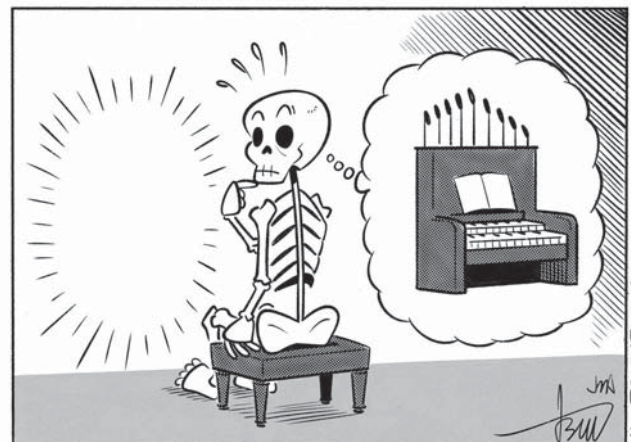

The very state of the Holy Souls is one of the most unbounded helplessness... They lie like the paralytic at the pool...They have no means of making themselves heard by us on whose charity they depend...Then another feature in their helplessness is the forgetfulness of the living, or the cruel flattery of relations who will always have it that those near or dear to them die the deaths of Saints. They would surely have a scruple, if they knew of how many Masses and prayers they rob the souls, by the...exaggeration of their goodness...The [Souls in Purgatory] cannot do penance; they cannot merit; they cannot satisfy; they cannot gain indulgences; they have no Sacraments; they are not under the jurisdiction of God's Vicar, overflowing with the plentitude of means of grace and manifold benedictions. They are a portion of the Church without either priesthood or altar at their own command...

We see that our charitable attention towards them must be far more vigorous and persevering than they have been; for men go to purgatory for very little matters, and remain there an unexpectedly long time. But their most touching appeal to us lies in their helplessness;...how wonderful still is the power which we can exercise in their favor!

We can offer and apply for them all the satisfactions of Our Blessed Lord. We can do vicarious penance for them. We can give to them all the satisfactions of our ordinary actions, and of our sufferings. We can make over to them, by way of suffrage, the indulgences we gain, provided the Church has made them applicable to the dead. We can limit and direct to them, or any one of them, the intention of the Adorable Sacrifice [Holy Mass].

The Communion of Saints furnishes the veins and channels by which all these things reach them in Christ. Heaven itself condescends to act upon them through earth. Their Queen helps them by setting us to work for them, and the Angels and the Saints bestow their gifts through us, whom they persuade to be their almoners; nay, we are often their almoners without knowing that we are so. Our Blessed Lord vouchsafes to look to us, as if He would say: Here are my weapons, work for me! just as a father will let his child do a portion of his work, in spite of the risk he runs in having it spoiled. To possess such powers, and not to use them, would be the height of irreverence towards God, as well as of want of charity to men. There is nothing so irreverent, because nothing so unfilial, as to shrink from God's gifts simply because of their exuberance.

"Why don't skeletons play music in church?"

"Because they have no organs!"

FUN FACT! Catholics remember the holy souls in purgatory every November. Take some time to pray for those who have died... and to pray with those in heaven!

OLP!

STEM Teacher

Looking for a part time job engaging with students of all age groups?

Are you a retired teacher, but miss working with students and the camaraderie of an amazing team?

St. Monica School is seeking a part time teacher to implement a STEM curriculum across all grade levels K-8. The position is 12 hours a week (2 days a week). Our job description is below:

The Part-Time STEM Teacher fosters curiosity, creativity, and innovation through engaging, hands-on learning experiences that integrate science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. The teacher promotes critical thinking, problem-solving, and collaboration in alignment with Catholic values and the school's mission to educate the whole child — mind, body, and spirit.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Plan and deliver quality STEM lessons aligned with school curriculum standards and Catholic educational philosophy.
 - Integrate real-world problem-solving, inquiry-based learning, and project-based instruction into classroom experiences.
 - Collaborate with classroom teachers to support cross-curricular STEM learning opportunities.
 - Use age-appropriate technology to enhance instruction.
 - Foster a classroom environment that encourages curiosity, respect, perseverance, and teamwork.
 - Assess and document student learning progress, providing meaningful feedback to students and parents.
 - Maintain classroom materials, technology, and equipment responsibly and safely.
 - Participate in professional development as requested.
 - Model Catholic values through words, actions, and relationships with students and colleagues.
 - Support the mission of the school and the broader Catholic educational community.
 - Commitment to fostering a faith-filled, inclusive, and joyful learning environment.
- Excellent communication, collaboration, and organizational skills.

Please email Principal@methuencatholic.org or call

Reading IWisdom 3:1-9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; And their passing away was thought an affliction And their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace.

For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself.

As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; they shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord shall be their King forever. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me

all the days of my life;

and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reading IIRomans 5:5-11

Brothers and sisters:

Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die.

But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

AlleluiaMatthew 25:34

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, you who are blessed by my Father; inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GospelJohn 6:37-40

Jesus said to the crowds:

"Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me.

And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day.

For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day."

OFFERTORY HYMN | I Am The Bread Of Life

I am the Bread of life,
 you who come to Me shall not hunger,
 and who believes in Me shall not thirst.
 No one can come to Me
 Unless the Father draw him.

And I will raise you up,
 And I will raise you up,
 And I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give
 Is My flesh for the life of the world,
 And he who eats of this bread,
 He shall live for ever, He shall live for ever.

Unless you eat
 Of the flesh of the Son of Man
 And drink of His blood, And drink of His blood,
 You shall not have life within you.

I am the Resurrection,
 I am the Life,
 He who believes in Me
 Even if he die, He shall live for ever.

You Satisfy the Hungry Heart

1-As when the shepherd calls his sheep
 They know and heed his voice
 So when you call your family Lord
 They follow and rejoice

2-With joyful lips, we sing to you
 Our praise and gratitude
 That you should count us worthy Lord
 To share this Heavenly food

3-Is not the cup we bless and share
 The blood of Christ outpoured?
 Does not one cup, one loaf declare
 Our Oneness in the Lord?

4-You satisfy the hungry heart
 With gift of finest wheat
 Come give to us, O Saving Lord
 The Bread of Life to eat.

MEDITATION | FLY LIKE A BIRD

1-O God, you know who I am. You know my hopes and my dreams. In my pondering and fears, in my joy and in my tears, O God, your presence is real.

CHORUS Fly like a bird to the Lord, my soul. I want to soar like an eagle. Though I may journey far away from home, I know I'll never be alone.

2-Where can I run from your love? Where can I hide from my God? From the dawn of morning's light to the darkness of the night. O God, your presence is real. CHORUS

3-When I am down and afraid, when I am falling away, you extend a gentle hand, and I know you understand. O God, your presence is real. CHORUS

RECESSIONAL HYMN | I KNOW THAT MY REDEEMER LIVES

1-I know that my Redeemer lives!
 What joy the blest assurance gives!
 He lives, he lives, who once was dead;
 He lives, my ever-living head!

2- He lives triumphant from the grave;
 He lives eternally to save;
 He lives in majesty above;
 He lives to guide his Church in love.

3-He lives, all glory to his name!
 He lives, my Savior, still the same;
 What joy this blest assurance gives:
 I know that my Redeemer lives!

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell
 Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
