From Fr. Joe

On this Second Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday, the floodgates of Divine Mercy are open to the whole world. All are invited to turn to God and receive the merits of His most Blessed Passion in whatever way their faith allows. We believe that Jesus appeared to a humble little nun in Poland back in the 1930s. To Sister Faustina, Jesus revealed the unimaginable magnitude of God's Mercy.

According to Saint Faustina: "On one occasion, I heard these words: My daughter, tell the whole world about My Inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy" (Diary 699). To obtain the Divine Mercy indulgence, one must go to Mass on Divine Mercy Sunday. But one can go to confession in the week before or after the feast. It is not necessary to confess on Divine Mercy Sunday itself! We encourage confession in the week prior or following the Feast itself.

That's great, Father, but what if I'm not participating in Mass or Confession due to the pandemic or some other issue? Jesus has provided for just such a contingency: "Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over [its] enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory" (Diary 47, 48). Devotions and prayers made to the Merciful Lord through use of this image will open the heart to receive graces in proportion to the amount of trust that the soul places in Him. Notice that the rays flowing from the Heart of Jesus are already flowing toward the viewer unconditionally (there is no "on" or "off" button that we need to press to get them to flow). To receive them all we need to do is bring a vessel of trust.

But what if I don't have an image of the Divine Mercy and no media through which to see one? Again, Jesus lovingly provides: "The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is – trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive. Souls that trust boundlessly are a great comfort to Me, because I pour all the treasures of My graces into them. I rejoice that they ask for much, because it is My desire to give much, very much. On the other hand, I am sad when souls ask for little, when they narrow their hearts" (Diary 1578). There are no "hoops" we need to jump through to receive this free grace. We only need a heart that has let go of its sins through repentance. In such a heart there is room for God's grace. Simply through the virtue of trust a heart can open the floodgates of mercy. Truly, God's mercy flows from the altar at Holy Mass as from the Altar of the Cross. God bless you!

Volunteers needed for our new Baptism ministry

While we've been in lockdown, we have not been idle. We have spent a year developing a new formation and outreach program for the Sacrament of Baptism! We're looking for Mature and Newly Married Couples who are strong in their faith to provide witness talks, friendship, and mentoring in the faith for parents who come to our parishes for baptism and a community of faith to raise their families. This outreach will require prayerful reliance on God, some public speaking, and a desire to share the faith with others. Most of the time dedicated to this ministry will take place on evenings and weekends. Please prayerfully consider joining this effort, and reach out to Karl at (978) 683-1193.

Our parish priests and deacons are now able to resume Communion Outreach to the homebound. At the same time, we continue to train lay people to be Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to their homebound family members (so long as they are part of the same "household bubble.")

If you would like to receive this training to be sent from our Masses to distribute communion to homebound members of your family or would like to have our priests or deacons bring communion to someone, please contact Karl at the office (978) 683-1193 or through our website methuencatholic.org.

"BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO HAVE NOT SEEN
AND HAVE BELIEVED." —JN 20:29

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

2nd Sunday of Easter • John 20:19-31

GOSPEL

After Jesus died, his disciples were afraid the Jewish leaders would kill them, too. They hid together in one room. They locked the doors and windows. Then Jesus appeared in front of them. They were not afraid any more. When you are afraid, Jesus will help you too. Tell him why you are afraid. Believe in Jesus. He will give you everything you need. He wants you to live with him forever in heaven.

PRAYER

Jesus, I believe in you. Lead me to your heavenly home.

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

Thomas replied, "You are my Lord and my God!"

MISSION

Talk to God about a friend who does not believe in Jesus. Ask God to give you the right words to say about Jesus. Then ask God to help you be patient.

GOSPEL

In today's Gospel, Thomas had a hard time believing his friends. Jesus was alive! They saw Jesus! Well, Thomas could not believe it. He needed proof. Thomas wanted to see Jesus for himself. Thomas wanted to touch Jesus' scars on his hands and his side. Once Thomas did that, then he would believe. You may have doubting friends like Thomas. Be patient with them. Do not get angry with them. Love them instead, and gently tell the truth about Jesus. Ask Jesus to open their hearts, so they can believe in him, too.

PRAYER

God, help me to be patient with my doubting friends. Show them that Jesus is their savior, too.

OBSERVANCES FOR THIS WEEK

for family members
left behind to make them."*

Artist's rendering

Because of the increased demand among area Catholics, making cemetery plans for their family on a PRE-NEED basis, we have completed construction on the new Our Lady of Good Counsel Chapel Mausoleum addition.
