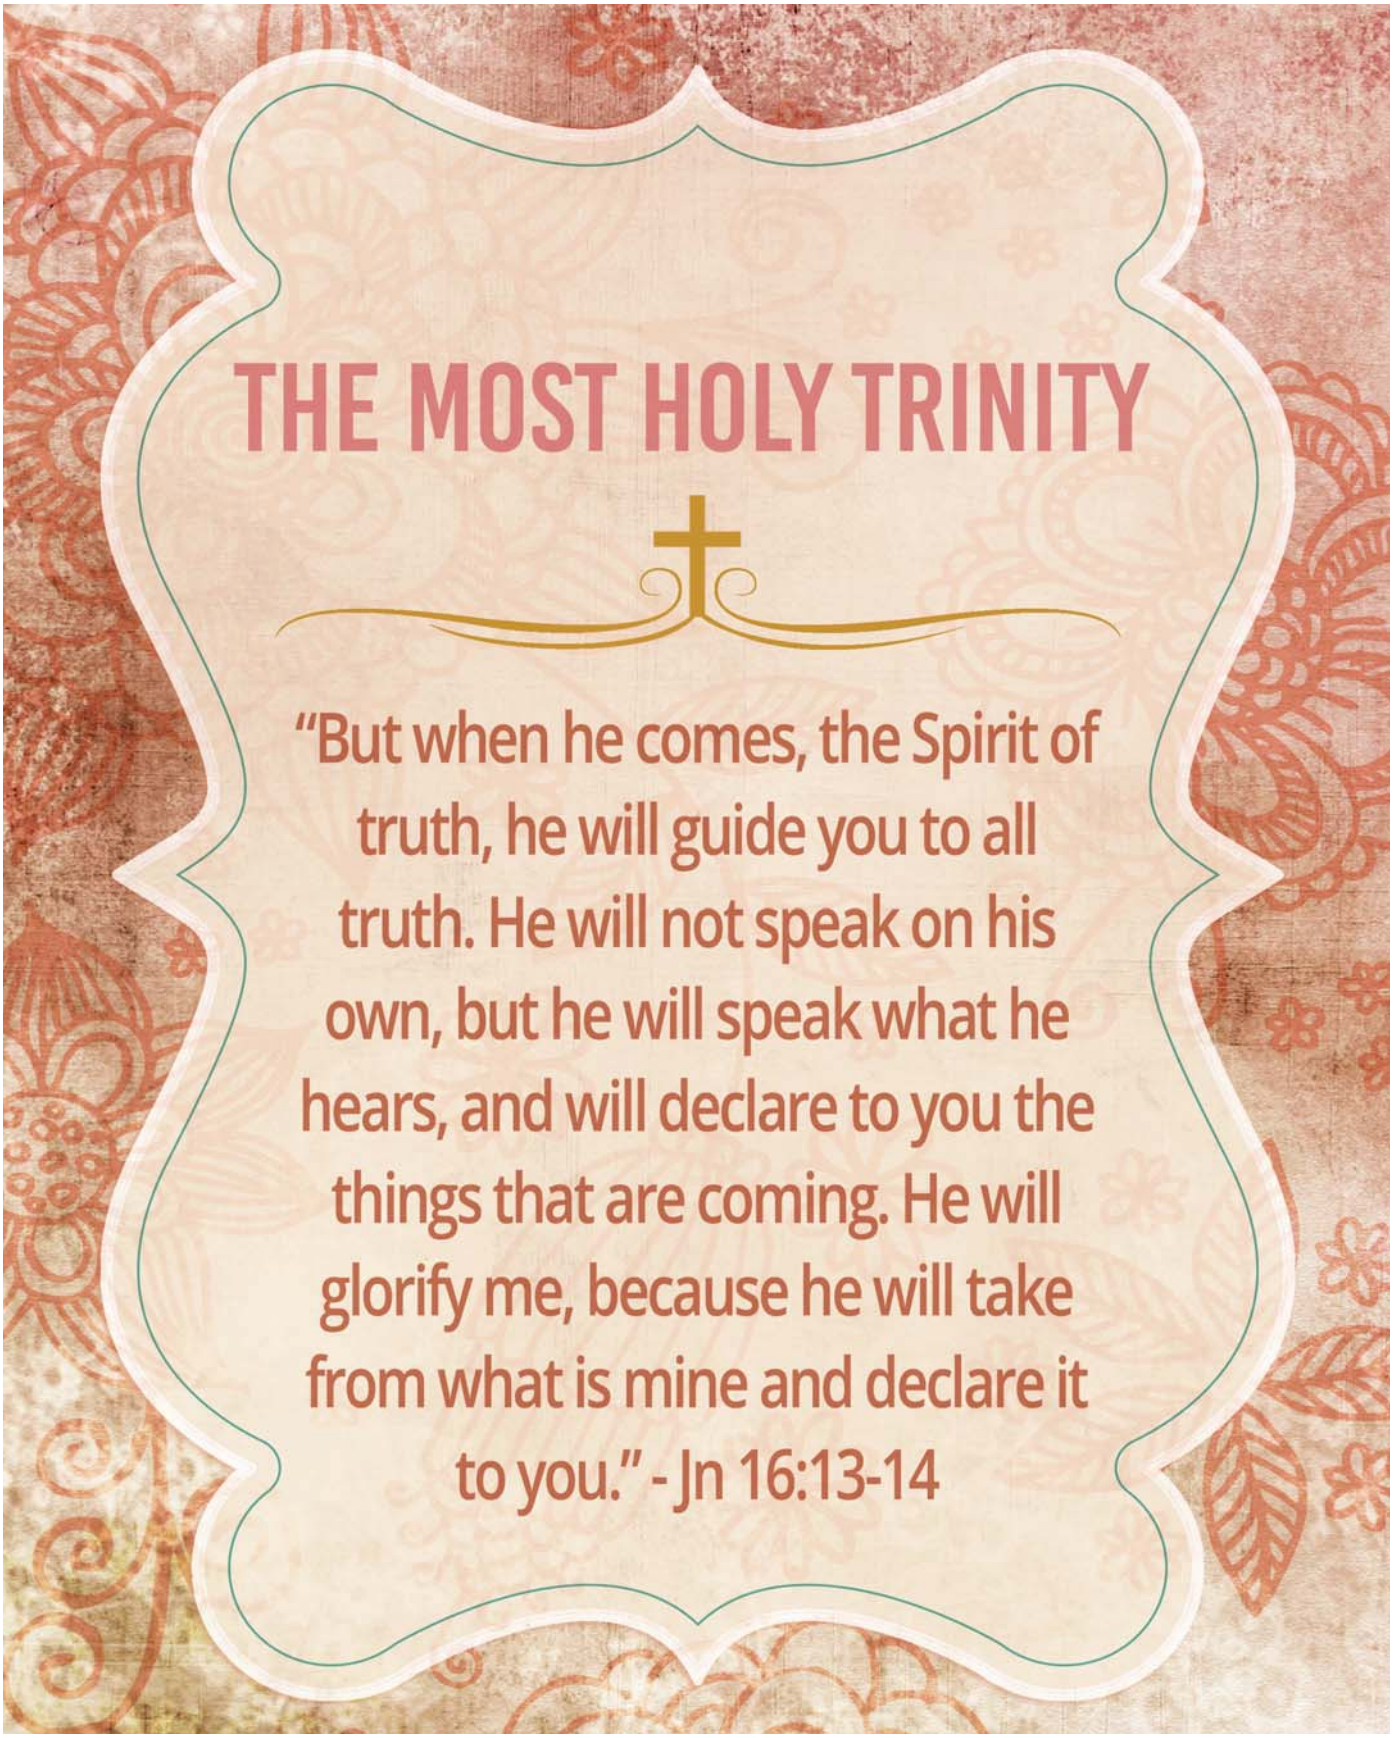
METHUEN CATHOLIC

THE PARISHES OF ST. MONICA AND ST. LUCY

JUNE 12
2022



MADE IN GOD'S IMAGE

In the second chapter of Genesis, the Lord says, "It is not good for the man to be alone" (Gen 2:18). If our present age--including the world's most recent experience with Covid, lockdowns, and social distancing--has taught us anything, it's the truth of these words: it is not good to be alone. However, the "not good" of being alone isn't limited to the unpleasant feeling which the absence of human company can cause, nor even the very real destruction of physical and mental health brought about by prolonged isolation (however great it may be).

It is not good for the human person to be alone because such a thing is existentially impossible. What do I mean? In short, I mean the human person exists in communion and for communion. All his days--from conception to death and beyond--the person exists in and is meant to grow in communion with God, others, and the world. It is not optional or subject to personal taste. It is a truth as objective as our own existence. No amount of wishing or technological progress can change this fact, and any societal movement or individual initiative that doesn't build upon this reality will, whatever the intention may be, harm the person and undermine the justice and peace of that society.

Why is this so? Because we are made in God's image and likeness. This means that we resemble the divine being. Today's Feast of the Most Holy Trinity teaches us that God is Triune. What does this mean? It means that the Mystery of God is the Mystery of Communion: Three Persons--Father, Son, and Holy Spirit--sharing one divine nature, distinct in their relation to each other. As the Catechism teaches us: The Father is God. The Son is God. The Holy Spirit is God. BUT. The Father is not the Son, nor is the Son the Father, and the Holy Spirit is neither the Father nor the Son. This is the mystery of mysteries, far beyond our limited understanding. And yet we can still glean some very valuable lessons meditating on it.

One vital lesson is this: just as there is a nature to the communion of the divine persons, so there exists a nature to human communion. Of course there is. Why would we think that God who creates everything good, and "according to their kind," and then orders all of creation for our good, would abandon us to chaos in our human relationships?

Another vital lesson is this: just as the mystery of communion among the persons of the Trinity is a communion of self-giving love so also human communion flourishes through self-giving love. Now we take this second lesson without neglecting the first. The nature of human communion informs the contours of self-giving love. For instance, self-giving love between a husband and wife is expressed through physical intimacy while self-giving love between a young couple just starting to date is expressed through abstinence. The self-giving love of a mother for her child may mean she set limits to his cell-phone use while self-giving love of a child for his mother means he obeys her. It would be strange indeed if we were to suggest that the self-giving love which the Trinity desires for human communion means a boy and a girl ought to be physically intimate on the first date or parents should obey their young children! Nonsense.

So on this Trinity Sunday let's give thanks for the revelation of this communion of truth and love that guides us in our call to grow in communion with one another.

INTROIT Tob 12, 6; ℣ Ps 8 · GR

Blessed be the Holy Trinity, and undivided Unity. We shall praise him, for he has shown us his merciful love.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN Holy, Holy, Holy

PENITENTIAL ACT – GLORIA Refer to Pew Card

FIRST READING Prv 8: 22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God: / "The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways, / the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago; / from of old I was poured forth, / at the first, before the earth. / When there were no depths I was brought forth, / when there were no fountains or springs of water; / before the mountains were settled into place, / before the hills, I was brought forth; / while as yet the earth and fields were not made, / nor the first clods of the world.

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there, / when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; / when he made firm the skies above, / when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; / when he set for the sea its limit, / so that the waters should not transgress his command; / then was I beside him as his craftsman, / and I was his delight day by day, / playing before him all the while, / playing on the surface of his earth; / and I found delight in the human race."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 8: 2ab; ℣ 4-5, 6-7, 8-9 · L

When I behold your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars which you set in place—
What is man that you should be mindful of him, or the son of man that you should care for him?

You have made him little less than the angels,
and crowned him with glory and honor.
You have given him rule over the works of your hands,
putting all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen,
yes, and the beasts of the field,
The birds of the air, the fishes of the sea,
and whatever swims the paths of the seas.

SECOND READING Rom 5: 1-5

Brothers and sisters: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

ALLELUIA Cf. Rev 1: 8 · L

℣. Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

GOSPEL Jn 16: 12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Tob 12: 6

We bless the God of heaven, and we shall praise him before all the living;
for he has shown us his merciful love.

COMMUNION HYMN O God, Almighty Father

RECESSIONAL HYMN Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

PRAYER FOR PASTORAL PLANNING

Almighty Father, give us the grace to follow where your Son leads.
Make our priests holy and effective ministers of the Gospel.
Make our staff and parishioners dedicated and enthusiastic disciples.
May we all be docile to the Holy Spirit and obedient to your will.
Help us make our parishes a light for those seeking you
And a safe harbor for those who hope in you.
We entrust ourselves to the Blessed Virgin Mary as we pray: Hail Mary, full of grace…
