LENT

ALMSGIVING

The Call to Charity is inseparable from Christianity. During Lent, we are asked to focus more intently on "almsgiving," which means donating money or goods to the poor and performing other acts of charity. As one of the three pillars of Lenten practice, almsgiving is "a witness to fraternal charity" and "a work of justice pleasing to God." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2462).

FAST & ABSTINENCE

There are two types of fasting in the Christian Tradition. One is the total fast which customarily preceded all high holy days, and the second is abstinence from certain foods, such as meats or fats. Abstinence is an act of self-denial and a challenge to practice self-control. So we abstain from meat on Fridays of Lent and choose to abstain from other things throughout the 40 days, which we discern are efficacious. We still keep the "total fast" for one hour before the reception of Holy Communion. After we receive the Eucharist, we break the fast for now that for which we kept vigil has arrived. Lent is also a season for fasting. Fasting makes us hungry. We desire food and food keeps us alive. When Christians fast, we imitate Jesus, and we declare with Him, "Man does not live by bread alone" (Mt 4:4). Our lives do not depend on food alone. "It is the Spirit that gives life" (Jn 6:63). So fasting which arises from faith liberates us from a total dependence on food and the world. It leads us to discover our true spiritual nature. Furthermore, fasting acknowledges that the spiritual life is a battle between good and evil, one which we will sometimes lose but which we must continue fighting.

PRAYER

Prayer is our "vital and personal relationship with the living and true God" (2558). Christian Prayer "is communion with Christ (2565). It is also a grace-filled response to God's initiative, emanating from the human heart. It arises from the Spirit who prays with us and for us to the Father in His Son Jesus. While definitions of prayer are helpful, they remain insufficient for a huge difference lies between knowing about prayer and praying. "If a man wants to pray, let him go and pray" (The Rule of St. Benedict). The Church herself prays without ceasing through liturgy. Every liturgical celebration is an action of Christ the High Priest and his Mystical Body, the Church. It therefore requires the active participation of the People of God. Liturgy is neither entertainment nor a spectator event. It is the holy "work" of the Church and the participation of its members is at once internal and external, engaging the mind, heart, and body of all. (adapted from www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship)

PRAYER FOR MARRIED COUPLES

Almighty and eternal God,

You blessed the union of married couples so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church: look with kindness on them. Renew their marriage covenant, increase your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The Marriage Course

A course to help couples strengthen their relationship

Mondays 6:00-8:00pm

February 12 - March 25

St. Lucy Schoolhouse

Dinner provided $125 Donation (suggested)

It's set up for all couples. It's a kind of date night, one evening a week for seven weeks. You sit in a room full of couples, but at a table for two and dine together. Afterwards, you listen to presentations, issues are raised, then you and your partner discuss and complete the exercises at your table. There's no group sharing.

PENITENTIAL ACT - GLORIA*Refer to Pew Card*FIRST READING*Leviticus 13: 1-2, 44-46*

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head.

"The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM*Psalm 147: 1-2, 3-4, 5-6*

R. I turn to you, Lord, in time of trou - ble, and you fill me with the joy of sal - va - tion.

Blessed is he whose fault is taken away, whose sin is covered.
Blessed the man to whom the LORD imputes not guilt, in whose spirit there is no guile.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you, my guilt I covered not.
I said, "I confess my faults to the LORD," and you took away the guilt of my sin.

Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you just; exult, all you upright of heart.

SECOND READING*1 Corinthians 10: 31-11: 1*

Brothers and sisters, Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION*Luke 7: 16*

A great prophet has arisen in our midst, God has visited his people.

GOSPEL*Mark 1: 40-45*

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once.

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

CREED*Refer to Pew CardCOMMUNION ANTIPHONPsalm 78 (77): 29-30*

They ate and had their fill, and what they craved the Lord gave them; they were not disappointed in what they craved.

STAND UP TO YOUR SCIATIC PAIN!

Are you seeking relief from crippling BACK PAIN or SCIATIC PAIN?

Sciatica is used to describe nerve pain that originates in the lower back, radiates deep into the buttock, and travels down the leg. Better known as, a literal 'PAIN IN THE BUTT' All jokes aside, we understand how painful and debilitating sciatic pain can be.

- The burning sensation is unbearable.
- The shooting pain makes staying active almost impossible.
- Long car rides are out of the question and standing for extended periods of time, forget it.
- You spend your entire day trying to get comfortable only to find that it's nearly impossible.

You've tried the stretches. You've tried ice and heat. You've even tried dietary changes with little to no relief!

At AWC | Acupuncture & Wellness Clinic we offer a PROVEN SOLUTION to TREAT your sciatic pain! Stop living in pain and START LIVING AGAIN!
